Knowledge Mobilization and sustainability activities

BOW – working with local community partners and creating new collaborations to expand and enhance the program

Fostering violence prevention and well-being for Black communities : creating 3 levels of manuals to allow for future delivery of programming: train the trainers manual; facilitators manual; and participants' manual; working with a community advisory group

Kids Club Mom's Empowerment – held a symposium in November and invited provincial government representatives to learn about the program and gain support for future funding

Cross-Sectoral Solutions: creating additional resources to support service delivery and will be heavily promoted through social media (eg. Instagram)

ConnectED Parents: creating micro-learning opportunities for parents. Exploring email or texting campaigns and AI chat bots to customize messages

Boussole – video series; created training and tools for day camp program staff; Marie Vencent is hosting a bilingual colloquium in June – all are invited to attend. Registration opens in March

MODELSS: new resource handbook\_trauma\_violence\_informed\_digital\_media\_literacy\_education.pdf
